

Become an iversity Campus Ambassador!

What this is about

We are not only looking to hire just another intern. We are looking for Campus Ambassadors! Join us for a period of 1–6 months, earn good money and be iversity's ambassador in your university or even your country!

You get to start a revolution and become part of a global community that is seeking to change the way we learn, teach, research, and collaborate.

What we do

Today, we share ideas online. We socialise online. We shop online. We communicate online. Everyday, everywhere – except in the classroom. In fact, around the world, universities are still working with "blackboards". In contrast to the numerous insular and outdated e-learning systems, iversity aims to unleash the possibilities of the web in research and education. iversity connects people and knowledge across institutional boundaries and makes it easier – and a lot more fun – for researchers and students from around the world to learn and to exchange ideas.

What we offer

- student jobs and internships (full and part time)
- experience to manage a marketing project
- a monthly pay of up to 500 €
- being part of a young and highly motivated team in a relaxed environment
- a great challenge for you to become one of the key players in the outreach in your country
- a taste of what startup life is like and the possibility to become an iversity employee

What we look for

As our Campus Ambassador, you must be creative, communicative, entrepreneurial and have excellent networking skills. You should be passionate about reforming higher education and promoting iversity's vision. Your job as a Campus Ambassador will be to spread the word – on your campus, in social media, press, etc. – for example, with the help of our video contest starting early 2012 (www.iversity.org/contest).

How to Apply:

- 1) Sign up at: www.iversity.org/ambassadors
- 2) Go to "Edit Profile" and upload your CV.

All applicants will go through a pre-selection process and will have a final interview.

We look forward to hearing from you! The iversity team
