

Centre for Studies in Islamism and Radicalisation (CIR)

International Conference on
NORTH AFRICA
AND THE MIDDLE EAST:
Challenges and Opportunities
27-28 May, 2011

With participation of:

- André Azoulay, Counsellor to King Mohammed VI, Morocco: Arab-Western Relations: New Challenges and a Different Perspective
- Nadia Chaabane, militante féministe, Tunisia/France: The Tunisian Revolution: the Role of Women and Young People
- Jean-Jacques Roche, Professor, Université de Paris 2: France's Activist and Interventionist Policy
- Aly Maher El Sayed, Ambassador & Advisor, Egypt: Egypt's Political Situation and Foreign Relations
- Georges Fahmi, PhD, Cairo/Firenze: The Role of Religious Actors in Egypt's Transition to Democracy
- Shahram Chubin, Sen. Ass., Carnegie Endowment, Switzerland: Security and Turbulence around the Persian Gulf
- Mohammad Shtayyeh, Minister, Palestine: The Impact of Arab Revolutions on the Palestinian Issue
- Ami Ayalon, Admiral, Israel: Israel Faced with Arab Revolutions
- Ali Shaheen Fatemi, Dean, The European Center, France: Iran's Political Situation and its Regional Role
- Yildiz Akdogan, MP, Denmark: Turkey's New Orientations and Ambitions

Time & Place:

Friday, 27 May, 2011, 9.15-17.00 & Saturday, 28 May, 2011, 9.30-14.00
Aarhus University, Building 1333, Auditorium 101 (aud. A1)

Free entry and free sandwiches

See the programme at: www.cir.au.dk. Registration here.

AARHUS
UNIVERSITY

BUSINESS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES
DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE AND GOVERNMENT