

Workshop on Political Repression and Violence

Aarhus University, March 14-15 (Bartholins Allé 7; Building 1330, Room 126; Store Mødelokale)

Monday (March 14)

9:00-9:10 Welcome

9:10-10:00 Suthan Krishnarajan (AU): Crisis, What Crisis? Improving Studies of Economic Crisis and Political Conflicts

10:00-10.50 Janina Beiser (Essex) & Kristian Skrede Gleditsch: To Be on the Safe Side: Government Repression in Space and Time

10:50-11.10 Coffee break

11:10-12:00 Suthan Krishnarajan (AU), Jørgen Møller (AU), Lasse Lykke Rørbæk (AU) & Svend-Erik Skaaning (AU): Democracy, Democratization, and Civil War Onset

12:00-13:00 Lunch

13:00-13:50 Fenja Søndergaard Møller (AU): Trust and Violence in African Provinces

13:50-14.40 Milan Svobik (Yale): When Polarization Trumps Civic Virtue: Economic Inequality, Captured Voters, and the Subversion of Democracy by Incumbents

14:40-15:00 Coffee break

15:00-15:50 Tore Wig (Oslo), Sirianne Dahlum (Oslo) & Carl Henrik Knutsen: Who Revolts? Revisiting the Social Origins of Democratic Revolutions

15:50-16:40 Jakob Tolstrup (AU): Learning to Manage Succession? The External Dimension of Authoritarian Succession

18:30- Dinner at restaurant

Tuesday (March 15)

9:10-10:00 Dag Tanneberg (Humboldt/WZB): Backfire and Ignorance: How Authoritarian Regimes Balance the Adverse Effects of Physical Coercion and Negative Sanctions

10:00-10:20 Coffee break

10:20-11:10 Lasse Lykke Rørbæk (AU): How Does Ethnic Exclusion Lead to Civil War?

11:10-12:00 Sirianne Dahlum (Oslo): Students in the Streets: Education as a Force for Non-violent Conflict

12:00-13:00 Lunch

13:00-13:50 Henrikas Bartusevicius & Svend-Erik Skaaning (AU): Electoral Democracy and Civil War Onset

13:50-14:40 Raymond Hinnebusch (St. Andrews): The Failure of the Non-violent Resistance Paradigm in Syria

14:40-14:50 Coffee break

14:50-15:40 Mikkel Sejersen (AU): Under What Conditions Do Smart Sanctions Influence Conflicts?