

PSRB-Africa workshop Program Jamen 25-27 2017

Final draft

Venue: Country Lake Resort Garuga, Entebbe <http://countrylakeresort.net/>

Contact for Dan Ngabirano: 256-779-857129

Purpose: to present work in progress; to develop and discuss our common approach and framework; to discuss methodologies and future steps.

Jan 25 9.30 am	Chair of morning session: Dr. Bakibinga Introduction: School of law principal and PI Uganda (Dr. Bakibinga)
10 am	Round of introductions
10.15 am: 11	Marianne and Mette present conceptual paper Coffee and tea Subsequent discussion on how concepts are used in various sub-projects
13 pm	Lunch
14 pm	Chair of afternoon session: Mette Odd-Helge Fjeldstad presents relevant findings from the Petro-State Project
15 pm 15.45	Mapping the Shifting Revenue Policies and Implementation in Tanzania and Uganda (Bakibinga; Jamal; Simon; Moses) Coffee and tea
16.15	Jalia Kangave presents results from the ICTD on taxing High Net worth individuals
evening	Workshop dinner: at Garuga

Jan 26: 9 am	Chair of morning session: Dan Rachel Beach presents her work in progress on revenue systems in Benin and Togo
-----------------	---

9.45 am	A spate of tax reform in Tanzania: targeting the rich and the poor (Marianne Lucas and Jamal)
10.30	Tea and coffee
11 am	Agricultural taxation and agricultural policy: unrelated or closely connected? Oscar and Mette
11.45	The Monetary Cost of Political Campaigning in Tanzania and Uganda (Ole, Jamal; Moses)
12.45	Lunch
13.30	Chair of the afternoon session: Jamal The politics of tax legislation in Uganda (Dan)
14.15	Rationale for taxing informal sector in Uganda and Tanzania (Bakibinga, Constantine)
15.15	Tea and coffee
15.45	Informal sector revenue bargains (Constantine): the GPT project?? Other projects of relevance for any of the participants. ? Political economy approaches?? Other ideas?
evening	Workshop dinner: at Garuga

Jan 27	Chair of morning session: Marianne
9 am	Comparing Tax Bargaining Processes in Different Tax Reforms in Tanzania (Simon)
9.45 am	He Who Pays the Piper Calls the Tune; An Analysis of the Influence of the Private Sector Foundation in the Budget Process in Uganda. (Oscar)
10.30	Tea and coffee
11	How can local revenue bargains after the abolition of local government taxes be characterized? (Lucas and Mette)
11.45	Bargaining tax expenditures in religious co-production in Tanzania: A paradox of embedded agency? (Jamal)
12.30	Ole Therkildsen presents his research on TRA

13.15	Lunch
14	Chair of afternoon session: Lucas Shifting financial responsibility: the financing of the social safety nets (Flora, Marianne, Constantine)
14.45	Explaining Compliance to Central and Local Government Taxes in Tanzania (Simon)
15.15	Tea and coffee
15.45	Comments and thoughts about synergy with other ongoing tax-related research: Odd-Helge Fjeldstad
16.15	Next steps: research
16.45	Next steps, project website
17.30	Workshop closure
19 pm	Possible visit to Ndere Cultural Centre for the ones who remain

List of participants

Lucas Katera, REPOA

Jamal Msani, REPOA

Constantine George, REPOA

Simon Edward, University of Dar es Salaam

Anne Mette Kjær, Aarhus University

Marianne Ulriksen, Aarhus University

Rachel Beach, Aarhus University

Ane Foged, Aarhus University

Dan Ngabirano, Makerere University

David Bakibinga, Makerere University

Jalia Kangave, IDS

Oscar Kamusiime, Makerere University

Ole Therkildsen , DIIS

Odd-Helge Fjeldstad, CMI